RANDY ANDY STRIKES FL!

Honorable Andrew thankfully missed this part of Florida, but it got a "direct hit" on Homestead, AFB which was own Wayne (Duckwater Haggar) Morrison was living. Wayne and family are now staying with friends over in Durban-as, Death-about 10 miles east of here; he's just been assigned to Tylin AFB north here in town. You might remember that last year Wayne had the dubious pleasure of experiencing a volcanic eruption, earthquake, and typhoon while stationed at the late Clark AB, Philippines. He's been able to move his former quarters at it unscathed and reports that the rooms are back to normal intact. No sense of his quarters (some recovered from Pinetree's duty are now hidden away. For the short term, address your correspondence mail to: Ann de BORIS at this address.

BORIS'S BBS

Thought for the Season: Kudos is never as strong as it looks; Power is never as weak as it looks.
--19th Century Diplomatic adage.

We have enough material in our 1992 report to fill our last page spending. We'll start it as soon as the applications arrive which would they want to play. To our knowledge there are but two real candidates out, the leading nation published in THE GENERAL, 23, 46, pp 12-3 and the Comrade version, which I've seen once, but which Dick Magnus keeps promising to publish whenever he gets around to publishing another FAST TRAX. Let's face, there's also a suggestion of Tom Swartz's or some player to "sell" passage through their books for a monthly acceptable fee of $10 to $300. Dick Magnus has proposed some minor variants in FAST TRAX. And most of those looked to be bookkeeping differences. Let us know your opinions and we'll get on with it.

Tom Parfitt has resigned his position as Turkey in BORIS IV and BORIS V due to the unexpected amount of work he's got to do in the process of getting from the Air Force in November, just to finally finding a new job at age 32. We expect him back and ready for action probably early next year, but until Michael Tsoul and Mark Finch assume the Department IV and V respectively. The feelings weren't pretty, but this of the plot is to be ruled by running from them!

(A WARNING to potential) items to live or less than one postage postage. We're trying the "liquid" format this time. Tell us what you think out it. It may be a pain to layout.

BOOS & KUDOS

Walter at Arlington Tex has reacted to have missed that our own Mike Anderson (Nobility is in, EREMIAS) was the ACQUIRE journey. Congrats!

This month's Midway Boris Paper Excellence Award goes to the authors of the "Guide" featured in BORIS IV and the Dovesnap article in BORIS V.

There will be no Mr Bow Paper-Entry Book this month. Perhaps it's his birthday present to you!

Further postings in vol to Mr Nor (25 Sep), TIKidzems (26 Sep) and Bont (27 Sep).

DEADLINE for all games is noon CDT on 3 Oct 92.

ANGLO-FRENCH TIGHTEN VISE! SULTAN ABDICATES!

Spring 1903

The Anglo-French Alliance continues to pressure hapless Germany while Austria headlessly persecutes its Glacé against decaying Islam. Meanwhile Italy has prevented an unpleasant French paragon at Tripoli while granting the French smoking conveniences through TRL. Perhaps the Year is not disturbed by Japanese threats to Port Arthur and Vladivostok, as his moves have been singularly predictable. The Sultan's abdication, citing overwork in the harem, leads yet another unknown to the equation, but it seems clear, at least for now, that Austria, England, and France are the powers of the future, and since the latter two will surely squabble, Austria should prevail. All our agents' efforts should be redoubled to weaken Austria, or to strengthen her neighbors.

EMBASSY BEAT

BERLIN—The German war machine purports to initiate against the treacherous French. The Kaiser has officially denounced the French in every way and has declared unconditional war on all French territories. As the French Embassy closes, Foreign Minister Fisher expressed the Kaiser's apology to the Englishman to the north. The incident involving the High Seas Fleet was a direct result of French sabotage. Communications lines were disrupted by French agents within Greater Germany turning the fleet's commands to think that the powerful English were attacking. Around that time, French attempts to HUL and BEL for false information to reactionary underground presses in an attempt to slander Germany's good name. The year attempt failed, with little wonder. Any attempt to slander Germany would recall that the High Seas Fleet opened negotiations in the Low Countries, making reports of mass slaughter and involved ground invasions simply gain fairy tales. Germany has not been paroled by the French parishes and is ready to re-open communications with all non-French nations. To further support the Kaiser's apology, he has given orders that the existing German fleet will be called into port and put on hold to show Germany's respect for England's sea supremacy.

PARIS—The French fleet continues its Mediterranean cruise. A stopover in Italy is scheduled for sometime next season.

GERMANY DEVoured!
SULTAN ABDICATES!

SPRING 1903

Anglo-French forces have captured all the German destroyers since MIN, while the submarines swim off to protect their share of the spoils. B.Ball and A.L.V. are super-cruisers at DEN and that is more than enough force available to ensure French A-Ber Min. The Emperor and old Sultan are too attached to each other's throats to permit the Turco degradation in their backyards. Perhaps the new Sultan can make peace with Vienna and Rome in order to kill France's 2nd year school in the Med. Polly has her own problems with the French armada with its way. Of the Big Three, England is in the best position to stay out (on both of her allies, but the worst of the other two turn on her. Diplomacy, as is proper, is the key.

SEVASTOPOL'—Jewish Soviet RadioScottish report on the capture of 31 saboteurs, Ivan Rukhovich Steinhilber. "I saw the saboteurs come into the mine wearing tin snails in one hand and his pistol in the other. We had no chance to follow because the gunfire was heard from the other side. Sure enough, saboteurs were burning like a stream of kerosene on the other side when we got there. I was lost for a moment and the house was graded, but he was still going like a madman. I was using my machine like a pistol at some T-34s clustered around some weapons on a wagon track at the bottom of the slope."

"I wondered if the Turks would kill me or my horse on the steep slopes. I kept thinking as I could just as Ivan jumped over the first group of Turks. How he lived only God knows. He lopped off one Turk's head while he pistol-whipped a second then got a bullet in another. By now Ivan was covered in blood. His on the Turks. I couldn't see. By now I was laying in sight a feet with my sides until suddenly there was nothing left to attack."

I looked for Ivan's body as I saw Korth and Ichken lying lifeless surrounded by dead Tazs. To my surprise there was Ivan, gagging like a new snail. The wagons were beer wagons. Yes, Ivan had rescued the precious cargo from lasterly Tazs. We immediately decided that we needed to protect the wagons from any likelihood of further losses. Northwest we proceeded to

BORIS WORLD PRESS REVIEW

LE MONDE (PARIS)--and missing, one French army.

LONDON TIMES: Wrecked! Again announced that forces will continue to secure the Southern countries. More fleets and armies are being raised to support the glorious defense.

Attention!!!

All those identified with the dealings with Abdul's issues up. Tricks of this nature will not be tolerated, especially coming from one named Abdul. We are in the business of delivering satisfaction and compensation to people like yourselves. All concerned in paying Abdul's visit should come to Sicily and inquire for Omdo.

AUS-GRN: Let's get to work. We need to talk, friend. What's wrong, your wireless out of view?

Naturally, Iraq was not even stretched. It was time to be lucky in battle, not a miracle to find her at the same time. I guess we'll have to call the Zokaffera, Lucky Iraq.

SURABAPT TO "GREAT POWER": Hey, wake up, between the Mad Russian and this crazy Page out part of the world is getting stomped. If you don't get something straight down from this ethnic mission could last a century!

EMPEROR TO SULTAN: So, an alcohol is totally forbidden? All the time? Maybe we could discuss some alternatives.

Stupid like a Union Baptist White House.

Anders calls 5 NYNH&H, buys President's shares of BOM during pm at 100 ($427,500, 200 = $707). NYNH&H drops to $60 and Alexander becomes President.

After that lowball, nothing it's time to bail the stock market. Don't tell this are orders for the combination of Stock Round 5 and prearranged orders for OR 5.1. Hanks has the Priority Card for the moment. Since two players are in the house are away and the other two are accessible to Anders, we should be able to anticipate each other somewhat.

The Research Department has reported that the Ohio River flows into the Mississippi River at Cairo. However, my personal investigation reveals that those residents of Cairo who speak English refer to the local river as the "Nile". Would you consider changing the name to the "Baltimore and Nile"?

My expense account for this investigative trip will arrive under a separate cover.

PRESS:

The Volkshamping Eisenbahn Board of Directors announced today an agreement to sell the Froelichbahn Eisenbahn. The Volkshamping Board Chairman confirmed today that the purchase price was lower than originally requested as the Froelichbahn company was overvalued at the asking price. The Chairman said irresponsible rumors printed by the press made delicate negotiations difficult, but this was overcome to the best interest of all parties involved.

Capt Arden @ Inn - blocked by Wolf

NOTE: The above identification involved a few rules that may not be familiar to those that "cut their teeth" on the first edition rules. Since we are using the Advanced Rules and Capt Arden was not hidden, the defending Regent began combat "back-stab-up" (Adv Rule 4.1). Hearing slain Richard, a rescue necessary to break his treasure rule (Rule 25.7, 6.5, and 9.31) before looting it. Paug was able to loot the Vault immediately because Sir Jordan failed the Hide roll, as Paug was spying on Sir Jordan when the good knight opened the Vault (Rule 16.51).

QUESTIONS: The T. Indiana is at Greg's. Four dollars remain in the Rogers shadowed treasure pile. Two treasure remains in the Vault. Your looted treasures are _____.

FACTS:

MOONDOGGIE is still alive, but now Mandoogine is the realm. Like, far out. Twice as many roads for Mama Moondoggie to Love!

Oh, loaded to GM: Whoops! Sorry about that mopey thing, Boris.
